LYNCHED AT LAST.

Ada Atkinson's Murderer Finds Justice at the Hands of a Mob.

Lynch Law Almost Sanctified by the Act—"Thy Faith Hath Made Thee Whole"—Accidental—Mississippi River Convention—Fall Through a Bridge Etc., etc.

FOWLER, Ind., Nov. 19.—Finally Jacob Nelling, the murderer of Ada Atkinson, has paid the penalty of his crime. He was taken from jail last night and lynched. The affair was well planned and, carefully and coolly executed. About half-past ten o'clock a lone horseman might have been seen riding into the town. He rode completely around the court house and jail, and seemed to be taking a survey of things, after which he rode away again. Two or three people who happened to be on the street saw it was rather a curious action, but the idea that he was a scout for a party of Indians never seemed to have suggested itself until, in about an hour after, three masked men rode into town. They hitched their horses, posted guards to warn away citizens, went to the east door of the jail where they soon found an entrance by breaking down the door with sledges. They then quietly, but with great determination, proceeded to break the iron door leading to the corridors. This took some time, perhaps half an hour. Soon, however, the door gave way under the sturdy strokes. Old man Nelling met them at the door of his cell, already dressed and ready to go to his doom. He was quickly walked to the carriage, in which was a rope. The old fellow took the matter coolly so far as can be learned. He made no resistance nor outcry. The only remark he made was, "Go a little slow, gentlemen; I am older than some of you."

The party did their work with very little noise and having secured their man, rode out of town towards Oxford.

Later news was received from Oxford that Nelling had been hanged there at half past one o'clock.

STEAMER PARROT BURNED.

Vicksburg, Miss., Nov. 19.—The S. J. Parrot of the famous P. L. line was totally destroyed by fire Saturday morning at five o'clock six miles above Natchez, together with a large and valuable cargo. The Parrot had been here a large quantity of stuff intended to fill her way engagements. There were no lives lost, but all else was entirely destroyed, making a loss, it is estimated, of $300,000.

The officers of the Parrot were: John A. Stevenson, master; A. McVay, first mate; Wm. Winkles, clerk; Fred Voltz and Wm. H. Winkles, engineers; John Garrity, engineer; Wm. Winkles, steward.

The Parrot left Vicksburg Saturday morning at ten o'clock with the largest cargo ever carried by her, and with a good passenger list. At a few minutes before six o'clock just below Goodhorns Landing, the cotton stored in her hold was set on fire. Engine room, including the pump, was soon on fire, and the Parrot was soon a total wreck.

At the same time the steamship for the Louisiana show, the boat steamer, the Parrot, left Vicksburg Saturday morning at ten o'clock with the largest cargo ever carried by her, and with a good passenger list. At a few minutes before six o'clock just below Goodhorns Landing, the cotton stored in her hold was set on fire. Engine room, including the pump, was soon on fire, and the Parrot was soon a total wreck.

A Serious Assault.

The residents on Condit street Saturday evening were stirred up by an exciting episode at the home of Mr. Corey, a contracting teamster, whose son, John Corey, aged 22 years, was the cause of all the racket. He brutally assaulted his step-mother, who is also his mother-in-law, with a heavy chair, knocking her senseless and fracturing one of the bones of her forearm, besides bruising her person seriously. The cause of the assault is unknown. The injured lady says it was wholly without provocation, and she also states that John injured her four years ago so badly that she had to remain in bed six weeks. John came home from Sullivan where it is alleged at the last term of the Moultrie county circuit court he was fined $25 and costs for licking a man. Marshal Mason and Officer Bailey arrested Corey Saturday night. He is in jail. A charge of assault with intent to kill will probably be preferred against the prisoner.

The Decatur "Review."

Saturday last, (Nov. 17) Mr. S. S. Jack sold an undivided one-half interest in the Decatur Daily and Weekly Review to Mr. W. J. Mize, of the Sullivan Progress, and Mr. G. W. Mize, for a long time foreman of the night force in the office. The office is valued at $6,000. We learn that the policy of the paper will remain unchanged. W. J. Mize, who is the Secretary of the Democratic State Central Committee, has made the Sullivan Progress one of the best country papers in the state.

The Baptist Concert.

At the concert treat to be given at the Baptist church next Thursday evening, Nov. 22, Prof. Pearson, of Litchfield, will be the violinist, and Mr. A. F. Fay, of Tolono, a fine tenor, will assist in giving the vocal selections. The concert will be a fine one, and merits a liberal patronage. Admission 25 cents. All are invited.

The Charity Ball.

Arrangements are about complete for the charity ball to be given at the St. Nicholas Hotel, Thanksgiving night. Tickets are selling rapidly at $2.00 each. One lady quickly sold all she had to-day.

Electric Light.

President Trowbridge has the enterprise of lighting Decatur with electric light all to himself, and is getting ready to supply our people with the Jenny light. Some weeks ago he ordered the plant from Ft. Wayne, and the outfit will probably be here this week, so that Mr. Trowbridge will be able to give us our merchants and citizens the new light for the holidays. The Citizens company have liberally thrown up the sponge by passing a resolution giving the field to the Decatur company of which the Doctor is president. The Doctor says he will probably place the plant on the rear of his residence lot on Church street, between Williams and Prairie streets. He was quite busy this forenoon arranging for the reception of the Jenny apparatus.

Change of Time.

A change of time in running trains on the Wabash and I. & W. roads took effect Sunday in conformity with the new standard time, which is nine minutes and a fraction over 33 seconds slower than the former time. The new time is called "Central Time," and extends from points as far as the east coast of Florida, Savannah, Ga., the eastern boundary of Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio, Buffalo, N. Y., thence northward along the west side of lakes Huron and Erie and extending as far west as the eastern boundary of Colorado, New Mexico, and embracing nearly the whole of Texas, Dakota and Nebraska.

The Rice Surprise Party

held forth at the open house last Saturday evening before a fair-sized audience, and gave the musical extravaganza or lustrum of "Fitzgerald" in which Mr. Fitzgerald, Miss Denney and one or two other vocalists and pianists were given ample opportunity to do their best toward entertaining the audience, and they did it, though some of the jokes were dreadfully ancient.

The music was fair. Mr. F. and Miss D. were the life of the party.

Notice.

At Springfield James E. McDonald, of Menokena, who was arrested for selling liquor contrary to law, was fined $100 and costs by Commissioner Bradford, and sent to jail in default. A TRIAL TRIP

The Mayor Smoke-Burner Successfully Tried on the Illinois Central.

Chicago Tribune.

Monday and Tuesday of this week a remarkably satisfactory test of the Mayor smoke-burner was made on the Illinois Central Road. An Alton engine with the smoke-burner attached was switched over to the Central's track, and Monday morning hauled the New Orleans passenger train over the first division, from here to Champaign, a distance of 128 miles. The following day the engine made its return trip, bringing here a passenger train of nine coaches, the heaviest that the road has had. The train was 40 minutes behind time on leaving Champaign, but made it up by the time it had reached Kankakee, a distance of 72 miles. The coal used on the down trip was from the Springfield mine, and that on the return trip Springfield slack. On each run there was no smoke, and there were no sparks; steam was kept up perfectly, and the Illinois Central engineer who went on the train as a pilot, the ordinary engine work being done by the Alton engineer, expressed his satisfaction with the results accomplished. Mr. Jeffries, the superintendent of the road, had intended to be with the party, but was called further south on business. The chief engineer, however, and the assistant superintendent were along, and were also exceedingly pleased with the workings of the smoke-consumers. It seemed to be the opinion of all that it surpassed any of the many devices which the road had tried, and that it was a perfect success. It is not improbable that this will lead to the adoption of this smoke-burner upon the many engines used for passenger and freight business by the Illinois Central.

THE BAIN TEA STORE

A Successful Business Conducted on the Right Principles.

"How can any money be made by selling tea and coffee alone?" That's a question that has been asked by many of the inquisitive. The answer is plain and simple enough. The Bain Tea and Coffee Company has 61 stores in the different towns and cities of this country, and buys in great quantity for all these stores alike. It imports its tea direct from China and Japan, thus saving to the consumer the profits of the importer, the large jobber and wholesale merchant. As a consequence, said Mr. Davidson, the manager, "we are able to sell tea from 20 to 25 cents a pound, and still get every cent and nothing more. They are sold at 25 cents less than is regularly charged here. Besides our store contains a fine assortment of china, mugs and glassware, which is given away to all purchasers of tea and coffee. We have every grade of tea and every grade of coffee, from the common kinds up to the finest in the market, and our prices are always the lowest."

The Bain Tea store is on the south side of the street, just west of the intersection of Main and Broadway, between Water and Franklin streets. It is finely fitted up, and a cordial welcome awaits all visitors there, whether they intend to purchase or not.
